SUBJECT: DEBARMENT DUE TO NON-SUPPLY OF HDPE/PP BAGS 10 KG CAPACITY
AGAINST GEM ORDER NO. GEMC-511687702702089 DATED 27.03.2025

Dear Sir/Madam,

This is with reference to bid GEM/2025/B/5902624 dated 03.02.2025, GeM Order GEMC-511687702702089, dated 27.03.2025, was placed through the Government e-Marketplace (GeM) portal for the supply of 3,71,840 nos. of HDPE Bags 10 Kg Capacity

As per your intimation vide mail dated 08.04.2025, your firm has requested for cancellation of the order on basis of wrong rate quotation & increased prices. Your inaction has led to the cancellation of the order, thereby causing operational inconvenience to our organization, adversely affecting our scheduled activities of material supply and further packaging of seeds on timely basis. This constitutes a clear violation of the contractual terms agreed upon at the time of order placement.

As per Clause 19 of the GeM General Terms and Conditions, titled "Termination for Default", If the Seller does not perform its obligations mentioned in the contract, the same would constitute the breach of contract & buyer shall have the right to Cancel or Withdraw the contract & would entitle buyer for actions including forfeiture of Performance Security besides administrative actions such as debarment of the firm. Referring to the clause, the order was cancelled on 17.04.2025.

In view of the above, it is to inform you that your firm is being debarred from participation in any future procurement through GeM or any other medium by our organization, for a period of Two Years from the date of issuance of this letter. We will also be reporting this breach on the GeM portal for further necessary action as per the platform's policies.

You are requested to treat this letter as a formal notice of debarment.
